

SkyDxddy, 7 Years

Once upon a time I lost my mind

It's been seven years since I saw you
Wonder what poor soul you moved onto
Ooh tell me why do I still feel you
They told me that this skin would be brand new
But that's not true

I still feel you all around me
Pull the trigger heart is pounding
I can't take this part of life
My mental health has been declining
Horror movie on rewind
I can't go out with you tonight
I got a date with cyanide
Talk about social suicide
Oh

It's been seven years since I saw you
Wonder what poor soul you moved onto
Ooh tell me why do I still feel you
They told me that this skin would be brand new
But that's not true

Medications my new best friend
Oxys mixed with shots of captain
Couch hoppin by seventeen
My body used as currency
Drugged up every single day
And nothin makes it go away
Drugs just help temporarily
And honestly it's scaring me

It's been seven years since I saw you
Wonder what poor soul you moved onto
Ooh tell me why do I still feel you
They told me that this skin would be brand new
But that's not true

Fuck your family you know you robbed me
Called your slaughterhouse a party
Told the boys "yeah she's so naughty"
Rip my former body
Golden boy fueled by achievements
Looks are so god damn deceiving
I'm the proof yet you believe him
They see an Angel
I see a demon

It's been seven years since I saw you
Wonder what poor soul you moved onto
Ooh tell me why do I still feel you
They told me that this skin would be brand new
But that's not true

I am the monster you created
Come and watch me feed
You can run
But you can't hide from me
