

Skye Sweetnam, Awakening

The world is painting me
Crimson lips, chestnut hair
Ivory cheeks,
Straight by south are tears
Azure Eyes
Reach my prismic soul
My heart longs to be called Testi Canzoni

Well today is the day I can definitely say
That the view from here is a rock of a clear
There's more to me than technology
My time in the shade is beginning to fade
As the light grows intense, I'm getting the sense
It took time to see what's happened to me
It's gonna end right here
I think I've found the answer

I'm awakening
Both feet on the ground through the misguided fear
I have nothing to fear
It's unconditional
This freedom that I found
The darkness is gone, and I'm moving on

Night turns into day
All the grays gone away
Heading my own way
When am I here to stay

There's a power in me
Now my spirit is free
I'm in lasting control and I'm ready to roll
There's more to me than technology
My time in the shade is beginning to fade
As the light grows intense I'm getting the sense
Took time to see what has happened to me
It's gonna end right here
I think I found the answer

I'm awakening
Both feet on the ground through the misguided fear
I have nothing to fear
It's unconditional
This freedom that I found
The darkness is gone, and I'm moving on

Nothing can stop me
Don't try to fight it
My heart is beating faster
The sky's the limit

I'm awakening
Both feet on the ground through the misguided fear
I have nothing to fear
It's unconditional
