

Skye Sweetnam, Bring It Back

Back, would you please bring it back
My whole life is out of whack
I crack under pressure, measure the facts
My world is upside down when you're not around
I'm down, low down, come back now
Cut, the curtains have been cut
Feel the churning in your gut
Bad luck, I'm falling but not out of love
The only cloud above is covering the sun
My sun is gone, it's gone yeah
Bring it back now
Bring it back now
Bring it back now, ooh-ah-oh, ooh-ah-oh
Bring it back
'Cause time's ticking you away
Time's ticking you away
Break, bend your brain till it breaks
Just don't let it go to waste
You make a move and prove that you miss
The perpetual bliss, the feeling when we kiss
My lip, imprint, you're hit man
Slide, I slip into your mind
Finally I will find my way
Shifting all your other thoughts aside
Don't leave this love behind, one day you'll be mine
Like old times, you'll be mine
You'll be mine yeah
Bring it back now
Bring it back now
Bring it back now, ooh-ah-oh, ooh-ah-oh
Bring it back
'Cause time's ticking you away
Time's ticking you away
Back, oh bring it back to me
The way it used to be
Oh please, I want you to come back
Back, oh bring it back to me
The way it used to be
Oh please, I want you to come back
Bring it back now
Bring it back now
Bring it back now, ooh-ah-oh, ooh-ah-oh
Bring it back
'Cause time's ticking you away
Ticking you away
You away, you away, you away
It's ticking you away, away
