

Skye Sweetnam, Shattered

I'm the mirror on the wall
You hurt me watch me fall
Crushed glass
Piercing shout
And stabbed deep through my heart
We were on the same side
Then this all began to slide
It got so hard to see
What was you
And who was me?

I'm left on the floor
You don't anymore
Despite how I tried
You swept me aside

I'm shattered on the floor
It's just a way of feeling so unreal
I'm shattered up with you
Cut me up push me down
Till I hit the ground
Till I hit the ground
Till I hit the ground

Crashing glass in the car
I might view you afar
Don't give
It was only take
Now my wind starts to break
I'm not gonna come back ever
You can't put me back together
Cut me up and cut me deep
Turn around and I'm off my feet

I'm left on the floor
You don't anymore
Despite how I tried
You swept me aside

I'm shattered on the floor
It's just a way of feeling so unreal
I'm shattered up with you
Cut me up push me down
Till I hit the ground
Till I hit the ground
Till I hit the ground

I thought it was you
Who watched me so clear
But now I fear
That It's always so clear
Before you lost me
It was always so clear
But it's all just so clear

I'm the mirror on the wall
Crushed glass

(piano)
Till I hit the ground
Till I hit the ground

Till I hit the ground
Till I hit the ground
