

Skylar Blue, Heavenly

So much for holding on,
I'm the weak and you're the strong,
I'm broken...
In a box it's hard to see,
things have changed but it wasn't me,
I'm still here...
Do you think about or miss
the little things, a simple kiss, goodnight...
All the things I know I lack,
if I wait right here will you come back,
to me...

[Chorus]
An angel is what you were,
was I for you?
Or was I...
the rock that drug you to,
the bottom of the ocean?
[/Chorus]

All the things we said we do,
I'm losing touch now losing you,
I need you...
I know why He led us here,
I always cry,
can't you hear I love you...

[Chorus]
Dancing along a line of wrong and right,
we were holding on to what we felt.
I think of times when it was me and you,
against the world,
it was me and you...

[Chorus] (x2)

I miss you... (x6)
