

Skylar Grey, Dance Without You

So serious, all the time
I feel distress, I feel confide
I cannot take your whispering, your whispering

I wanna dance without you
I want just let me lose myself lose myself
I wanna dance without you
I want just let me lose myself lose myself for life
Let me lose myself

So insecure, so uptight
I break my neck, to be polite
I cannot take your whispering, your whispering

I wanna dance without you
I want just let me lose myself lose myself
I wanna dance without you
I want just let me lose myself lose myself for life
Let me lose myself

How can I make history, with your choreography
Take your hands off me, take your hands off me
Before I suffocate

I wanna dance without you
I want just let me lose myself lose myself
I wanna dance without you
I want just let me lose myself lose myself for life
Let me lose myself
