Skylar Grey, Dance Without You

So serious, all the time I feel distress, I feel confide I cannot take your whispering, your whispering

I wanna dance without you I want just let me lose myself lose myself I wanna dance without you I want just let me lose myself lose myself for life Let me lose myself

So insecure, so uptight I break my neck, to be polite I cannot take your whispering, your whispering

I wanna dance without you I want just let me lose myself lose myself I wanna dance without you I want just let me lose myself lose myself for life Let me lose myself

How can I make history, with your choreography Take your hands off me, take your hands off me Before I suffocate

I wanna dance without you I want just let me lose myself lose myself I wanna dance without you I want just let me lose myself lose myself for life Let me lose myself