

Skylar Grey, Vampire At The Swimming Pool

Should I stay or should I leave
No one is talking to me
Head to toe covered in lace
Sitting quiet in the shade
Fighting some internal rage
Like a lion in a cage

Like a vampire at the swimming pool
In the summertime
Like a vampire at the swimming pool
Trying to hide
I don't know why I even came
I just feel so out of place
Like a vampire at the swimming pool
In the summertime

Skin so fair it's nearly blue
For every shot your taking I'm taking two
Feeling awkward feeling strange
I was born against the grain
Never know quite what to say
All I do is pray for rain

Like a vampire at the swimming pool
In the summertime
Like a vampire at the swimming pool
Trying to hide
I don't know why I even came
I just feel so out of place
Like a vampire at the swimming pool
In the summertime
(Yodeling)

Like a vampire at the swimming pool
In the summertime
Like a vampire at the swimming pool
Trying to hide
I don't know why I even came
I just feel so out of place
Like a vampire at the swimming pool
In the summertime
