

Skylark, The Answers

Music: Antonini-Tordini

Words: Antonini

Since the rainbow has gone behind me

I'm lost in my fantasy

I can't go away, I can't wake up there

I can't clear this agony

As I think about past time

I can't stop my cries anymore

it's so hard this truth from my mind

I cannot believe in love

So the answers are too far to come to me so this fire is too strong to disappear

Where are you? is my sad question

I tell myself more and more with no strenghtm with no intention but I have to believe in me

'Cos my pride's next to fall down on my knees but my life needs something to believe in Future is a dark room closed without windows, without lights soul is lost, heart is stolen, but I'm really fighting

'Cos I've lost the answers,

Fight alone, (the answers),

You're alone, (the answers),

Of the world,

The answers will not come!

Will not come!!
