

SkyMarshall Arts, Back In Time

""Spoken:""

MTV's Decades is sponsored in part by the Amiga computer from Commodore.
And by the Nintendo Entertainment System.

(Dream)

(Hey! Listen!)

It all began back in '85.
Wasting hours waiting on my 1541 Drive
Playing Syndicate on my Commodore 64.
Everything was better before.

The years went by, and in '89.
I got me an Amiga from the 5-O-O-line.
8-bit tracker fan
and it all began - with Turrigan.
Octalyzer made me a - music man!

Here we go again. The time has come for more.
Once again we ramble on about that everything was better before.
Playing Monty on my Commodore. When the games were in their prime.
Let me take you back in time.

Here we go again. The time has come for more.
Once again we ramble on about that everything was better before.
Playing Monty on my Commodore. When the games were in their prime.
Let me take you back in time.

(Dream)

(Hey! Listen!)

In '94 came the PSOne.
Once again an epic journey in my time begun.
Gaming everyday in the atmosphere, of Metal Gear.
And Silent Hill was absolute ... fear!

The next year came the N64.
They just dont make'em like those on it anymore.
Legendary games out of Tokyo, like Mario.
And every other hero should shrink ... compared to Link.

(Dream)

(Playing Monty on my Commodore. When the games were in their prime.
Let me take you back in time.)

Here we go again. The time has come for more.
Once again we ramble on about that everything was better before.
Playing Monty on my Commodore. When the games were in their prime.
Let me take you back in time.

Here we go again. The time has come for more.
Once again we ramble on about that everything was better before.
Playing Monty on my Commodore. When the games were in their prime.
Let me take you back in time.