

Sl27, It's Hard...

The light of love can blind you
Till you cover up your eyes
There's no love, there's no hate
I left them there for you to take

Chorus:
It's hard, so hard
You're breaking my heart
It's hard, baby it's hard
You're breaking my heart

I played the part of a broken heart
In your life
I should have listened when you said goonight
You really mean goodbye

Spoken:
Please, be truthful
Are you happy?
Baby, come back to me...

Chorus:
(...)

Love has many different faces
Sharing life, kisses and love
I don't know the reason, why you left me
You're in my dreams
You're in my life you're in my soul

Chorus:
(2x)
