

Slade, Dogs Of Vengeance

They'll chase you, they'll race you
They'll run you to ground, them dogs of vengeance on the prowl
They'll haunt you, they'll taunt you, they won't make a sound
Mark well the trickery dogs that don't howl
They'll psych you, they'll strike you, they're hot on your heels
Them dogs of vengeance are unreal
They'll track you, they'll crack you, they'll melt nerves of steel
Some sad obituary you are the meal
So come to my castle you innocent souls,
some good entertainment I've planned
Come to my chamber and I will unfold
some exquisite passion so grand
Some torment the best in the land
They'll hound you, then surround you, then get set to attack
Them dogs of vengeance on the prowl
They'll claw you, then tug-a-war you, there'll be no turning back
Accept my sanctuary, throw in the towel
So come to my castle you innocent souls
Some good entertainment I've planned
Come to my chamber and I will unfold
Some exquisite passion so grand
Some torment the best in the land
Some exquisite passion so grand
Some torment the best in the land
Some good entertainment I've planned
Them dogs are still hard on your heels
Them dogs gonna melt nerves of steel
Them dogs gonna make you the meal
