

Slapp Happy, Silent The Voice

Silent the voice sinking in the sea ah.
Silent the moon rising before me it's her.
If you could cover my body with flowers.
If I could imprint my soul with your eyes.
Silent the voice.

Slowly your eyes closing far away it's you.
There where you lay I will be with you, forever.
If you could cover my body with flowers.
If I could imprint my soul with your eyes.
If you could shower my hair with kisses.
Silent the voice.
