

Slash feat. Andrew Stockdale, By The Sword

With the horses that you ride,
And the feelings left inside,
Comes a time you need to leave all that behind,
Well they claim they'd like to know,
And they wont could let you go
And the people gotta run for the last show

Well there is all we want
To live and die by the sword,
Well they tried to complicate you
But you left it all behind
All the worldly possessions
Are left for recollections
And finally it's all gone

They're releasing all the hounds,
What is lost can still be found,
When you're walking with your fear down on the ground
Well there's those who choose to run
Following the setting sun,
And now it seems the journey's has begun

Well there is all we want
To live and die by the sword,
Well they tried to complicate you
But you left it all behind
All the worldly possessions
Are left for recollections
And finally it's all gone

With the horses that you ride
There's a time you need to leave it all behind

Well there is all we want
To live and die by the sword,
Well they tried to complicate you
But you left it all behind
All the worldly possessions
Are left for recollections
And finally it's all gone
