

Slaughter, Eye To Eye

(Dana Strum, Mark Slaughter)

It's an illusion in your mind

Imagination runs wild

Well are you satisfied 'cause the picture you paint is so blue

Or do you close your eyes to live the other side

When you're lookin' in the mirror there is no one in sight

[CHORUS]

Do you really know who you are

So ya wanna change your life

Do you really know who you are

'Cause you're gonna have to face it

Tell me why

Why do you cry out in vain

Lost in confusion, is your game

Well are you satisfied 'cause the picture you paint is so blue

Or do you close your eyes to live the other side

When you're lookin' in the mirror there is no one in sight

[CHORUS]

You won't remember what you've done

And now you live life on the run

[CHORUS]
