

Slayer, Gemini

(Music: King, Lyrics: Araya)

Endure the pain you know my name
I am your soul insane

I am no one
no one who cares
I am your soul despair

Your fear deceives vulnerability leaving an easy prey

Consume your mind a power so divine will take you and rape you blind

Gemini master of demise your death is my salvation to a kingdom mine
my lord is my light the master of darkness
your death is my salvation

You look at me with eyes of fate and see the graphic truth

Your ignorance cannot shield you from your naked abuse numbling of your moral sense facing reality
That life is unconditional and death is only the beginning

The pain will never end...

Walking slow, breathing heavy you could see death sweat how it shined an argument out of control in my mind

I am here for the sole purpose of your death walking slow breathing heavy you can see death sweat.

I am here for the sole purpose of death look into my eyes and see the revelation of your demise feel the pain that stares at the center of your heart reflections of my soul reflections of the dark
