

Sleater Kinney, Anonymous

she's worried she said too much and talking i'm talking she's talking like books i read it's easy it's easy it's easy to shut yourself off never on the record it'll never show up feel safe, inside, inside those well drawn line boyfriend, a car, a job, my white girl life she swallowed a spider to catch, to catch that fly but i don't know why, why she swallowed that lie she wants to be anonymous i sign anonymous
she wants to be like everybody else
i sign anonymous
not enough for you to know not enough for you to own these words are all i have these word are who i am
