

Sleater Kinney, Dance Song '97 well you know there ain't no doubt when the feeling finds you out you know you can try to run i tell you it still will come when you feel your body shake trip and fall you can't walk straight beby then you knwo it's done you can feel your heart is stung you're the one that i saw you're the one that i want well you can try to keep it down try not to let the words come out but i tell you it's no use in your eyes they see right through if you're going way too hard if you're feeling way too much but inside you can't stop desire she eats you up
