

Sleater-Kinney, One More Hour

in one more hour
i will be gone
in one more hour
i'll leave this room
the dress you wore
the pretty shoes
are the things i left behind for you

oh, you've got the darkest eyes

I needed it
(i know its so hard for you to let it go, i know its so hard for you to say goodbye
i know you need a little more time)

if you could talk
what would you say?
for you things were
just night and day
take off the dress
take off the face
i'll hold you close
before i leave

don't say another word
about the other girl
