

Sleeper, You Got Me

you got me yeah
you got me yeah
whenever you want me yeah
whenever you want me yeah
you got me you're not alone you got me you know whenever you want me yeah
whenever you want me yeah i'll breath with you leave with you when everyone else is gone we'll leave a door open a glass broken a perfume of rain on an ocean of calm i'll drink like you think like you when everyone else is wrong we'll tear their seams open a small token lying around like a bruise on their arms ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh i'll stay with you all day with you whenever you're incomplete i'll be a match for you a deep scratch when your gravity's gone and your full of defeat i'll lie with you a spy with you whenever you're on your own i'll be around for you a clown for you a cord you can pull when you're falling too fast
