

Sleeping With Sirens, Jesus In The Southern Sky

Jesus I can see you in the southern sky
When the clouds aren't out the sun is shining through.
Jesus do you feel me when our worlds collide
and if have nothing at least I still have you.
5 miles away from, so far away from, all we know, all we know.
Jesus do you feel me when I calling out?
When I'm asking you to be all that I need.
Jesus help me understand that what I want may not be, what I need.
5 miles away from, so far away from, all we know, all we know. [x4]
Jesus falling from the sky, yeah you're lifting me up
I see your love falling down and yeah, you're lifting me up.
You're all I know. You're all I know.
Jesus falling from the ground, yeah, you're picking me up.
I see your love falling down and yeah you're lifting me up.
You're all I know. You're all I know.
And Jesus falling from the ground you're picking me up.
Yea Jesus falling down and yea your picking me up.
You're all I know. You're all I know.
Its falling from the ground, your lifting me up yea your lifting me up, your all I know
Jesus I can see you in the southern sky
Miles away from, were so far away from, all we know, all we know
5 miles away from, so far away from, all we know, all we know
