

Sleepthief, Desire of Ages

I'm not afraid of the distance
The shadow left behind
I'm not ashamed to look my fear in the eye
I will embrace the emotion
Pain will disappear
Holding your face in my hands
I will wipe away your tears

(Chorus)

We will find a brighter sun
As our secrets come undone
Now the boundaries of our love need a new heaven, a new earth
Our hearts in the hands of time

I am surrounded by violets
Fading before you return
I will forgive the silence,
But do you hear me cry?
Destiny rumbles the fortress
Love conquers everything
You fought your way through the darkness
Take my hand, run with me

(Repeat Chorus)

Desire, dreams, yearning for love

(Repeat Chorus)
