

Sleepy Jackson, The, Vampire Racecourse

You're so cold that you don't even know it
Your love is so cold, you're frozen in love yeah
Your house has got one foot in the graveyard
You're dead alone. your dead alone

You're so cold that you won't even know it
Your love is so cold your frozen in love yeah
You're family's got one foot in the graveyard
Your dead alone. your dead alone

These roads they sing like bats i know
Their eyes are tightly sewn, like some preists i know

Oh yeah

Wildcat regime it's always back in scene
I know i was only seventeen
I lost an eye it was caught in the graveyard
Your dead alone

What you want
Is this what you want
Oh yeah
Is this what you want
Is this wat you want
Oh come on
Is it what you want
Is it what you want
Is it wat you want
What youwant
