Slick Stunna, Movement

the space between out bodies has been currupted the peole that make the laws and rules for us they dont give a fuck about us our hearts are being bought our minds are being washed we must interupt we must interupt we are just a moment away look what we're doing to the atmosphere it's no wonder the kids drug themselves to get out of here this perpetual motion is killing our emotions so the rich can make a dollar make another dollar we are just a moment away if its no everyone then it will be no one my brothers and sisters
