Break!

Here comes the pain!

Enemy, show me what you wanna be I can handle anything Even if I can't handle you Readily, either way it better be Don't you fuckin' pity me Get up, get off...

What the hell am I sayin'?
I don't know about malevolent
Sure as hell decadent
I want somebody to step up, step off
Walls! Let me fall! Fuck you all!
Get a grip, don't let me slip 'til I drop the ball.

Fuck this shit, I'm sick of it You're goin' down, this is a war!

Fuck it!

Who the fuck am I to criticize your twisted state of mind? You're leavin' me suspect, I'm leavin' you grotesque Feels like a burn from which you never learn Cause and effect, you jealous ass Press your face against the glass, suffer!

Fuck this shit, I'm sick of it You're goin' down, this is a war!

Go!

I've just begun
It's about that time
Gotta get mine
I've just begun
It's about that time
Gotta get mine
I've just begun
It's about that time
Gotta get mine
I've just begun
It's about that time
Gotta get mine
I've just begun
It's about that time
Gotta get mine.

You can't kill me
Cause I'm already inside you
You can't kill me
Cause I'm already inside you
You can't kill me
Cause I'm already inside you
You can't kill me
Cause I'm already inside you.
