Slipknot, This Cold Black

welcome out

Mother Nature is a coward "(Mother Nature is a Whore)"
No More Presence, no More Power "(I pray for death by the hour)"
Cut Another Smile into me "(Into ME is All You Are)"
My Artifice won't recognize Me "(You won't find me)" anymore

Post-Traumatic War Machines The Pessimists still won't believe Throw away my past mistakes It's all I can to feel

Let my weapons be your CHILDREN Let my armies be your DAMNED Try to suffer on in silence TRY TO STOP ME IF YOU CAN

Pneumatic destroyer
Pathetic seducer
Distortion sufficient
Someday, one day, we'll live our lives again

My Ghosts Have Found Their Way Back Home
I have every right to kill my own "(I have every right to kill my own)"
I am something now that never could exist
My Anguish Conquers All/Pay The Price And Watch Me Fall
My Only Key Is Broken- My Broken Key Is Only... ME

Pneumatic destroyer
Pathetic seducer
Distortion sufficient
Someday, one day, we'll live our lives again

You utter waste of tired flesh It doesn't matter if you can't progress Even now they still create me Give me your ignorance/IRRITATE ME

I am made of the same debris You want it all but you didn't want me Hypocrite with no real use I'm alive. What's your excuse?
