

Sloan, Everybody Wants You

Everybody wants you
Everybody dies
Whenever they're around you
So it comes as no surprise
That I feel the way I do today
But I haven't got the heart to say

God, it feels so wrong
I hope nobody hears about it
God, it feels so strong
I hope nobody hears, hope nobody hears

Everybody wants to
Think they're understood
Or maybe understanding
Or at least I think they should
You know it wasn't supposed to be this way
I've guess I got a lot of nerve to say

God, it feels so wrong
I hope nobody hears about it
God, it feels so strong
I hope nobody hears about it

God, it feels so wrong
I hope nobody hears about it
God, it feels so strong
I hope nobody hears, hope nobody hears

God, it feels so wrong
I hope nobody hears about it
Hope nobody hears about it
Oh no

Everybody wants you
Everybody wants you
Everybody wants you
Everybody wants you
