

Sloan, I Can't Let Go

(Taylor & Gorgoni/The Hollies - Would You Believe, 1966)

Oh, I try and I try but I cant say goodbye

Feel so bad, baby

Oh, it hurts me

When I think of how you love and desert me

I'm the broken-hearted soul you play with

Baby (Baby)

Baby (Baby)

You got me going, I need you baby

I can't let go, and I want you baby

I gotta have you know

I cant let go

Though I'm just one, of your lovers

And I know that there are so many others

You do something strange to me

Baby (Baby)

Baby (Baby)

You got me going, I need you baby

I can't let go, and I want you baby

I gotta have you know

I can't let go

I try and I try but I can't say goodbye

I know that it's wrong and I should be so strong

But the thought of you gone makes me want to hold on

You got me going, I need you baby

I cant let go, and I want you baby

I gotta have you know

I cant let go

You got me going, I need you baby

I cant let go, and I want you baby

I gotta have you know: I can't let go

I cant let go...
