

Sloan, Laying Blame

(C. Murphy/Sloan)

Fame and fortune
Don't interest me
Just as long as I have you
Notoriety
Wouldn't phase me
Just as long as I have you
As I have you

Just as long I have you
Just as long I have you

Wealth and success
I couldn't care less
Next to you
They leave me unimpressed
Sex and fame
Seem pretty tame
Next to knowing that you feel the same
You feel the same

Next to knowing that you feel the same
Next to knowing that you feel the same
Next to knowing that you feel the same

La la la la...

Love and romance
Don't stand a chance
'Cause I'm drinking
For the dance
Laying blame
By any other name
Would sound as sweet
As once I have you at my feet
You'll feel the shame

I will know that you will feel the shame
I will know that you will feel the shame
I will know that you will feel the shame
Feel the shame

La la la la...
