

Sloan, Pretty Voice

You have got such a wonderful chance at
Doing something really cool
Instead you could be hangin' around with us
Well I bet you thought I would say "fool";

No, I
Understand your point
So don't get your nose out of joint
At the things that I will say to you
In due time

I see you
Going into the feast
The only girls I know east
So I'll turn my back and leave
On my way
Know what to say

You've got such a pretty voice
No one wants to hear

You
Demand a second choice
To sing your second voice
And to do the things they won't let you do
Funny
It happened to work out this way
Together for just one day
See you in a week or two

You've got such a pretty voice
No one wants to hear
Sometimes you should shut your mouth
And open up your ears

Sometimes it's awfully loud,
Usually not clear

You have got such a wonderful chance at
Doing something really cool
Instead you could be hangin' around with us
Well I bet you thought I would say "fool";

No, I
Understand your point
So don't get your nose out of joint
At the things that I will say to you
In due time

You've got such a pretty voice
No one wants to hear
Sometimes you should shut your mouth
And open up your ears

Sometimes it's awfully loud,
Usually not clear
