

Sloan, Stood Up

(C. Murphy/Sloan)

I've got to meet my friends
You go ahead I said I'd wait here
I thought I was supposed to meet them
Guess I was mistaken

This is a waste of time
They made it clear that they're not coming
I'm glad I didn't hold my breath?
I'm already so blue

I couldn't take a hint
And it smacked me in the face

Stood up
In my time
It helps to put me
In my place

Given they won't show
Then what should be my recourse
Should I draw a line
Do you suppose they'd come and meet me

Even if they did
It's not for certain I would know them
Keep in mind I've yet to meet them
All I know it's you

I couldn't take a hint
And it smacked me in the face

La la la la...

Stood up
Stood up
Stood up
Stood up - woo!

Stood up
Recognize
I have yet to Find my place

I have yet to Find my place
I have yet to Find my place, yup
