

Sloppy Meateaters, Give Me Something

Give me time give me faith
Give me everything I hate
Still I take with a smile for awhile

Do I feel the need to rate my life
Based upon this fight with myself
Give me anything I can't control

Give me something I can't live without

Stop the time kill the faith
Take this love and make it hate
And I, yes I need anything I can't control

Can life feel any better
I can't feel anything
