

Sloppy Meateaters, I Sing Like A Girl

You'll never get far, you cant be a star I think your crazy and you're wasting your time you play too fast you act too dumb youre having too much fun and you sing like a girl what can i say cuz i always just fall down on my face im sick of this place im waiting for anything lonely scared and desperate for a change we got no tricks we dont suck dick our future looks hazy we are wasting our time we play outta tune i cant hold a note we must be crazy and i sing like a girl i wanna be in a pop punk poser sell out band wanna be wannabe a rockstar pretty boy but im working at Toys R Us
