

Sloppy Meateaters, Mom

For 20 years i acted so selfish pushed u away and took u for granted you taught me so much about loyalty and love ill never forget how much u put me above yourself im really sorry mom ive been a rotten son im really feeling bad youve been my mom and dad

you sold your soul so i could eat you blocked the dark so i could read you worked your fingers to the bone you stood by me through all the tears you bailed me out when no one did its matters regardless of what u say or do it matter it matters to me
