

Slowdive, Catch The Breeze feels like all the days are gone just catch the breeze you know you've had your fun rain washes waves down and i, i want the world to cry and i, i watch the winds you fly you can believe in everything you can believe it all

hey are you feeling something new just watch the rain it helps in all you do the breeze it blows
it blows everything

and i, i want the sun to shine
