

Slowlife, Breakout

I fall to pieces.
Dead inside I stand alone.
So scared of the unknown.
Terrified to forget who I am.
Bring me back, make me complete.
Am I the one you can't delete?
I see your face every day.
All the time you're in my way.
Give me another taste of peace.
Don't end my life with a lethal injection of love.

Breakout.
I'm on my knees tonight.
I pray that I'm not alone.
Breakout.
I'm on my knees and I wish I'm not on my own.
I've become a sacrifice to educate you in your life.
Breakout on me and show yourself.

This is not over until I say it is.

I refuse to let you in.
To wear me down.
I can't turn you off.
I can't sleep at night.
I'm different than before.
And whenever I feel abandoned you try to push me over the edge.
Give me another taste of peace.
I won't forget.
Let me be me.

Breakout.
I'm on my knees tonight.
I pray that I'm not alone.
Breakout.
I'm on my knees and I wish I'm not on my own.
I've become a sacrifice to educate you in your life.
Breakout on me and show yourself.

I won't let you in.
I can't turn you off.
I won't let you win.
This is not over until I say it is.

Give me another taste of peace.
Give me another taste of life.
Give me another taste of love.
You try to push me, push me over the edge.
