

Slurpymundae, Breakfast Special

I am awakened
By something unusual this morning
And my head is foggy
From the night before
Too much drinking and sha-nay-nay.

And I think I'll sleep
For an hour or two
Just to dream about my baby
I awake in the shower
With my groove on steady
Stay there for an hour

And I'll see you later
When you realize that I come first
And I'll see you later

And when I look at you I'm crazy
Cause all the shit you talk don't phase me
I'm stressed out
I thought I told you to turn it up
I thought I told you to turn it up
Break it up, shut it up, get it up

And now that time is passing
Two bucks under-paid, still laughing
Got fired
I thought I told you to turn it up
I thought I told you to turn it up
Break it up, shut it up, get it up

And I'll see you later
When you realize I come first
And I'll see you later
