

Slurpymundae, Four Foor Grey

Take my hand
And save me from myself
Sometimes it's easier said
Than done

I get a little bit angry
I get a little bit angry with myself
But when I feel I'm coming down
Oh it makes me wonder
That maybe I can still hear the sound
(of your voice)
When I'm coming down (of your voice)
It'll be soon now (of your voice)
I'm coming down (of your voice)
It'll be soon

Trust in what's never been said
Be open minded
In time we'll all be ok
So they say

I get a little bit angry
I get a little bit angry with myself
But when I feel I'm coming down
Oh it makes me wonder
That maybe I can still hear the sound
(of your voice)
When I'm coming down (of your voice)
It'll be soon now (of your voice)
I'm coming down (of your voice)
It'll be soon

When I feel I'm coming down
It makes me wonder
That maybe I can still hear the sound
(of your voice)
When I'm coming down (of your voice)
It'll be soon now (of your voice)
I'm coming down (of your voice)
It'll be soon
