

Slurpymundae, In Full View

I've got the time so let me intrude
If you got the patience let me introduce myself
And if any of you can walk in these shoes
And learn how to live and not have to choose
Between the two

You were like a brother to me
Oh, I only left because you could see
That often we're our own enemies

And I remain
Left unchanged
Though everything goes by so fast
And I see through you
The things you do, they do amuse

You were like a brother to me
Oh, you only left because you could see
That often we're our own enemies
