

Slurpymundae, Sifter

And all my feelings left, to rest tonight
The strangest innocence, pretends tonight
And everything I've ever held has died
So let me slip inside emotions tonight
So come on now

Knowing everything I've said tonight
Strangest conversations, bled tonight
And everything I've ever held has died
So let me slip inside emotions tonight
So come on now

And I've seen myself
And I've got to learn
Memories land
