

Slut, All We Need Is Silence

oh all we need is silence a good working self defence no need for conversation none of their revelation don't want to know about what you heard don't want to hear a single word got me no need to stop it , I will stay misanthropic if I had the decision I would kill all musicians we need to set the record straight I ought to know it's very late when will it ever be the same when will we make it back to silence why must it end up in a typical way when will we ever use our violence I'm just a little bit upset no more each-other-faking faked polite handshaking none of my bellyaching regular big-mistaking come on and look into those eyes: I got them covered up with lies when will it ever be the same
I'm just a little bit upset
oh all we need is silence
