

Slut, Cloudy Day

Welcome to this song,
Listen close 'cause it's for you
I've been thinking of
And there is nothing I could do.

I smile a loser's smile,
Put my eyes down for a while,
I've been soft and I've been weak
Move my hands and start to speak -
For the first time.

In the dark again,
Forever caught within a lie
And not as safe as when
A cloudy day would let me die

I smile a loser's smile,
Put my eyes down for a while,
I've been soft and I've been weak
Move my hands and start to speak -
"You're a favourite girl
You're a favourite girl"

A strange stain - an eternal child,
Never sure but always shy
I'm going to take it for a ride
Through all the gardens where I hide

Far away from the crowd, always silent
Never loud, never able to be proud
Never allowed to let it out:
A million thoughts within a year,
Full of anger - full of fear,
I want to see what I have done for you

A strange stain - an eternal child,
Never sure but always shy
I'm going to take it for a ride
Through all the gardens where I hide

Far away from the crowd, always silent
Never loud, never able to be proud
Never allowed to let it out:
A million thoughts within a year,
Full of anger - full of fear,
I want to see what I have done for you

For you
For you
