Slut, Cloudy Day

Welcome to this song, Listen close 'cause it's for you I've been thinking of And there is nothing I could do.

I smile a loser's smile, Put my eyes down for a while, I've been soft and I've been weak Move my hands and start to speak -For the first time.

In the dark again, Forever caught within a lie And not as safe as when A cloudy day would let me die

I smile a loser's smile, Put my eyes down for a while, I've been soft and I've been weak Move my hands and start to speak -"You're a favourite girl You're a favourite girl"

A strange stain - an eternal child, Never sure but always shy I'm going to take it for a ride Through all the gardens where I hide

Far away from the crowd, always silent Never loud, never able to be proud Never allowed to let it out: A million thoughts within a year, Full of anger - full of fear, I want to see what I have done for you

A strange stain - an eternal child, Never sure but always shy I'm going to take it for a ride Through all the gardens where I hide

Far away from the crowd, always silent Never loud, never able to be proud Never allowed to let it out: A million thoughts within a year, Full of anger - full of fear, I want to see what I have done for you

For you For you
