

Small Black, Breathless

I'm standing in tomorrow's way
Future's fine
Least it seems okay
It doesn't mean a miracle
Should be turned away

On that day
Saw both my life and death
In two lines
Felt the kick of fate
There I was invisible
Just out of phase

There's no sun, no storm
No time, nowhere
Breathless
For a moment I was Nowhere
Breathless
There's no sun, no storm
Nowhere
Breathless
For a moment I was
Breathless

Both the void and the parade
Were in due time
And they feel the same
Even if I wanted to
Well I can't explain

Just how could I be standing here
Across divides
Unhurt, unfazed
It didn't feel impossible
But it looked that way

There's no sun, no storm
No time, nowhere
Breathless
For a moment I was Nowhere
Breathless
There's no sun, no storm
Nowhere
Breathless
For a moment I was
Breathless

For a moment I was fine
For a moment I was fine
