Small Faces, I'm Only Dreaming

If the smile on my face Doesn't mean much any more Then its all been just a waste of time So wont you close your door But when I look into your eyes I feel there's still something there And something's all I need to hold on to I can lie to myself I still care I still care about the way... And the little things you say Won't you please come out to play I'm only dreaming I'm only dreaming What good does dreaming do, when you're nowhere? I got nobody to hold on to, But I keep on smiling, crying See me walking down the street Just turn your head and walk away 'Cos by now you ought to know how I feel and there's no more I'm only dreaming I'm only dreaming Oh, yeah Got to know what I mean (lyrics continue, but fade)