

Smalltown Poets, Firefly

Glowing eyes
That ask if I would risk it all
Fight the crowding dark away
I can't help but feel that You are searching me
On the dusk of summer's first day
Fragile wings bring
Little messages of light

(Chorus)
Firefly
Burning inside
I'll fly
With the light inside of me

Circling free
From a gently opened jar
With the halo You show me
A symbol of the fact that I am carrying
The image of your glory
Fragile wings bring
Little messages of light

(Chorus)
I burn to know
Your will, Your ways
Your heart and mind
And learn to love the way You love

Aluminescent speck
Shining at the perfect time
Tests the temporary night
And signals other tiny fires
Time to light up and fly
Light up, light up and fly

(Chorus)
