

Smash Into Pieces, Deadman

There's a bullet with your name on
For a heart that is hollow
I'm gonna hunt you down to the edge of the world now

I'm a storm on the horizon
Shattering the silence
You can run but you can't hide

Cause you're a dead man walking
The reapers got you now
You're a dead man, believing you're alive
Said you're a dead man, talking
The devil's in your mind
And your sinful soul it won't see another night
You're a dead man, dead man
You're a dead man, believing you're alive

There's a saying in my homeland
Ain't no mercy for the heartless
I'm gonna smoke you out from the hole where you hide now

I'm a force you'll never outrun
I'm a demon with a handgun
And the bounty's on your life

Cause you're a dead man walking
The reapers got you now
You're a dead man, believing you're alive
Said you're a dead man, talking
The devil's in your mind
And your sinful soul it won't see another night
You're a dead man, dead man
You're a dead man, believing you're alive

It's high noon your time has come
To meet your fate neath a scorching sun
The way is shut no where to go
So let the darkness claim your soul, claim your soul, claim your soul
You can run but you can't hide
Your a dead man, dead man

Cause you're a dead man walking
The reapers got you now
You're a dead man, believing you're alive
Said you're a dead man, talking
The devil's in your mind
And your sinful soul it won't see another night
