

Smash Mouth, Looking For A Wall

Met someone I knew before
The window paynes to the soul
They will never let you down
We know we've seen each other 'round
Doin' the late night crawl
Deep inside I'm sick and tired of it all
It comes too quick and goes too fast
Does anything ever last at all

CHORUS:

We're just looking for a wall to crash into
Me, I'd be happy just bumping into you

Here I am and there they go
And if you ask me how I know
The oldest story in the world
Than I hope someday you'll know
That they'll never die if you never grieve
Everybody's movin' to a place they gotta leave
So kill your TV and kill your phone
Be quiet and be alone with you

CHORUS

When technology solves apologies, I will retire
With records and candles and pencils and camera
And your soul in my eyes...
