

Smash The Statues, La Nona Ora

And we'll continue to burn down your churches
Slice down everything until we got what we really want
It's our right to believe in nothing

But not all decisions are made on purpose
Not everything is
We never really wanted some

It's not personal but we'll slice down everything I guess
We never really wanted some
