

Smash The Statues, Lee Kyung Hae

Left, with only one eye fixed
On the stick and shield before him
Struggle to reclaim his rights
For land and food and vote

And twenty thousand miles from home
Abundance is commonplace
And twenty thousand miles from home
Victory over the masses

Right, with only one eye fixed
On material needs and status
Profit as his idolatry, devotion to the dollar

Falling twenty fucking miles away from his hotel
Are desperate bodies in the dust.
Spreading twenty thousand miles away from home
Teargas over the masses
